Pope Francis'

July Prayer Intention

For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

"Jesus knows we are sinners; he knows we make many mistakes, but he does not give up on joining his life to ours.

He knows that we need the Eucharist, because the Eucharist is not the reward of saints, but the bread of sinners. This is why exhorts us:

"Do not be afraid! Take and eat."

Love Without Measure...

"A Christian world and a world yet to be evangelized." That situation no longer exists. The people who have not heard the gospel no longer live in non-western countries. They are everywhere especially in large urban areas. In large cities new models are needed. We are not in Christian times." Pope Francis

In his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Nuntiandi, Pope Paul VI speaks specifically of the evangelizing mission of migrants. Take a Christian or a handful of Christians who, in the midst of their community, how their capacity for understanding and acceptance, their sharing of life and destiny with other people, and their solidarity with the efforts of all for whatever is noble and good.

Let us suppose the, in addition, they radiate in an altogether simple and unaffected way their faith in values that go beyond current and popular values, and their hope is not seen and that one would not dare to imagine. Through this wordless witness, these Christians stir irresistible questions in the hearts of those who see how they live: why are they like this? Why do they live this way? Why or whom inspires them? Why are they among us? Such a witness is already a silent proclamation of the good news and a very powerful and effective one. Here we have an initial act of evangelization.

Pope Paul VI introduced a new era of mission linked to the energy of the times, urbanization, and linked local and international migration. As in the past, mission went with human movement. Pope Paul recognized the emergence of a new human energy: migration.

It is the same way. Coming from today's underdeveloped, incoherent world and seeing skylines of the rich world, they are saying what immigrants said to themselves in the past; if I can make it there, I can make it anywhere. Immigrants are the energy band in today's world. They energize economies at home with their remittances and away with their energy and ingenuity. Their arrival energizes local Christian communities, mosques and temples. They are the new forces of evangelization, the new messengers to the new gentes.

Mission today is related to issues. Building issues, solidarity, and resolving tensions. Mission today is beyond geography. Migration is the human heart on a journey of hope. Hope is the dynamic force in a pandemic-ridden world.

Authentic mission must be asking: who are the excluded? Who is denied contributive justice? The severest poverty is that of not being wanted. Mission is now about encounter, welcoming and witness expressed in a wide range of new informal participatory ministries, challenging dehumanizing secular liberalism in which the market is God, profit is sanctifying grace, heaven is homeowner occupied, to be poor is to be damned and excluded.

"The Church is called to remind everyone that for God no one is a foreigner, or excluded. It is called to awaken consciences dormant to indifference to the reality of migrants." (Pope Francis)

Around the Parish

Augustine Rainbow Camp had another great week learning what it means to be "considerate" during our "Fairytale" themed week! All campers went to the zoo on their first field trip and we ended the week with our 10th Annual Picnic with the Knights of Columbus. Campers participated in a magic show, ate delicious hamburgers and hotdogs, enjoyed snow cones, and participated in a variety of fun games including the famous "Donut Dangle"!

We are so thankful for the Knights' continued support of Rainbow Camp over the years and are already looking forward to the 11th Annual Picnic next year!

Reflection

"Friend, Lend me your hands"

During the wind-swept city bridge War, a small Korean village came under heavy artillery fire. When the smoke of the battle cleared away, the pastor of the parish sought the help of some American soldiers in restoring to its pedestal a fallen statue of Christ. Since the statue's hands were gone, the soldiers planned to mold two new hands. The pastor, however, came up with a very meaningful suggestion: "Let us leave the statue as it is and write on the front of the pedestal the words, "Friend, lend me your hands." Sending his apostles as his ambassadors to preach the "Good News" and to heal the sick, Jesus, in today's Gospel, reminds us that he has no hands but ours to raise the fallen; no feet but ours to seek out the lost; no ears but ours to listen to the lonely; and no tongue but ours to speak words of sympathy and encouragement to those weighed down by sorrow, pain and failure.

We become fully alive as Christians through the generous giving of ourselves. What is more important than sending checks for charitable causes is giving of ourselves to people: in the way we speak to them and about them, in the way we forgive their failings, in the way we encourage them, console them and help them, and even in the way we think about them. These types of generosity reflect warmth radiating from the very love of God.

Eucharist Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus, as we gather at Your altar, You give Yourself to us in the Most Holy Eucharist, so that we might become who we receive.

By Your holy presence, we are blessed. May we be transformed forever by Your love that stretches forth to us from this altar. May Your sharing in our humanity humble us to more readily share in Your Divinity.

Heal our brokenness with Your real presence and help us to draw strength from You in the Eucharist. Unite us to You in this sacrament that brings healing and Redemption.

As we glorify You by our lives, give us grace and courage to share Your love with a world sorely in need of Your mercy. May Your true presence bring hope to those on the margins, dry the tears of the poor and the wounded, and end our divisions.

May Your Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity be a source of revival for us. Let us become one with You as we seek the peace of Your kingdom where You live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

(Please pray daily until July 16th for the People on the Eucharistic Pilgrimage)

The Catholic bishops of the United States created Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship a teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics. All the faithful, and people of good will, are encouraged to use the statement to help form their consciences, contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue, and shape political choices in the coming election in light of Catholic teaching. The statement lifts up our dual heritage as both faithful Catholics and American citizens with rights and duties as participants in the civil order.

On the Lighter Side

A state trooper sees a vehicle on the interstate doing 24 miles an hour and pulls the car to make sure everything is all right. When he approaches the driver he discovers that it is a nun. "Excuse me, sister. But are you alright?" He asked. She replies, "Oh, yes officer. We're just fine. Was I doing something wrong?" The officer says, "Well sister, you were traveling way under the speed limit and I was concerned that you might be having car trouble or something." "But officer", the nun interrupts, "I saw a sign there about a mile back that said 24, and I know I wasn't going any faster than that." Chuckling, the trooper says, "Sister, that was a state highway route marker, this is State Route 24, not the speed limit. The speed limit signs have a MPH at the bottom." "Oh, now don't I feel foolish!", replied the nun turning red. "That's ok, but please try to be more careful, I would hate to see you get hurt", finished the officer. Then as he turns to say good-bye to the nuns in the back seat, he notices for the first time that they are trembling violently and quite pale. "Sister, what is wrong with your friends? Can I escort you to a hospital?" "Oh, no, they're all right. We just turned off of Route 135."
