Pope Francis'

July Prayer Intention

For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

"Jesus knows we are sinners; he knows we make many mistakes, but he does not give up on joining his life to ours. He knows that we need the Eucharist, because the Eucharist is not the reward of saints, but the bread of sinners. This is why exhorts us:

"Do not be afraid! Take and eat."

Love Without Measure...

Dear Parishioner,

It's been almost 5 months since joining the parish staff, and I appreciate the kind welcome I've received from so many of you. I'm hoping to meet more of you during the summer months and especially during the events celebrating our patron, Saint Augustine.

My days have gotten progressively busier as I've made contacts in the community and met more and more of the people served at the Hunger Center and Community Cupboard/Closet. Directing the Saturday Cupboard/Closet occupies a good portion of each day. I coordinate the individual volunteers and arrange with outside groups to serve with us ensuring that we have the right number of people each weekend. I work with outside groups looking to volunteer during the week. Coming up, St. Mary Hudson, St. Ambrose, and St. Dominic are bringing groups to serve.

I've met with our area block clubs, local pastors, the Near West Side Shared Ministry Group, the Tremont West Development Corporation, and other organizations to establish or re-establish a connection. The Laundry Love ministry grew from one of these relationships.

I've enjoyed helping people with birth certificates, social security cards, IDs, and driver's licenses. People's needs are great, and their deepest longings center around love, compassion, and acknowledgement. The Church should excel in these!

Please feel free to contact me at the parish (216-781-5530), via email (acamino@staugustinecleveland.org), or simply approach me after Mass. I would enjoy having a conversation about what's on your mind. Again, thank you for having me as a part of the St. Augustine family.

Reflection

Handle Rejection in the Right Spirit!

We need to handle rejection in the right spirit. Here are some tips:

- a) We can handle rejection with respect – respect for ourselves and respect for others. Our first reaction to rejection is often anger – anger at ourselves for assuming we deserve what we got and bitterness toward others who perpetuate the rejection. In the face of rejection, we will be wise to follow the advice of St. Paul who said, “Be angry and sin not. Let not the sun go down on your anger.”
- b) We need to avoid self-defeating assumptions. One rejection need not be an indictment on one’s life. Rejection is not synonymous with continuous failure.
- c) We need to avoid magnifying the rejection. Rejection need not be a forecast of our future, and it must not become a self-fulfilling prophecy. Rejection in the past need not be a predictor of rejection in the future.
- d) We need to avoid allowing rejection to derail our dreams and instead to keep coming back.
- e) We need to learn from our rejections. We are not perfect, and we do not always get it right, but we need to keep coming back until we do get it right. Every rejection can be a lesson if we stay open to new possibilities and new opportunities. What can I do differently? How can I improve? What needs can I meet? These are the questions we need to ask if we are to prevent a trouble from going to waste.

Diocesan and Community News and Events

NATIONAL Eucharistic Congress

Eucharist Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus, as we gather at Your altar, You give Yourself to us in the Most Holy Eucharist, so that we might become who we receive.

By Your holy presence, we are blessed. May we be transformed forever by Your love that stretches forth to us from this altar. May Your sharing in our humanity humble us to more readily share in Your Divinity.

Heal our brokenness with Your real presence and help us to draw strength from You in the Eucharist. Unite us to You in this sacrament that brings healing and Redemption.

As we glorify You by our lives, give us grace and courage to share Your love with a world sorely in need of Your mercy. May Your true presence bring hope to those on the margins, dry the tears of the poor and the wounded, and end our divisions.

May Your Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity be a source of revival for us. Let us become one with You as we seek the peace of Your kingdom where You live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

(Please pray daily until July 16th for the People on the Eucharistic Pilgrimage)

On the Lighter Side

One day a friend asked Fred, "Why aren't you married? Can't you find a woman who will be a good wife?" Fred replied, "Actually, I have found many women I wanted to marry, but when I bring them home to meet my parents, my mother doesn't like them." His friend thinks for a moment and says, "I've got the perfect solution, just find a girl who's just like your mother." A few months later they meet again and his friend says, "Did you find the perfect girl? Did your mother like her?" With a frown on his face, Fred answers, "Yes, I found the perfect girl. She was just like my mother. You were right, my mother liked her very much." The friend said, "Then what's the problem?" Fred replied, "My father doesn't like her."
